

Christina Maria Peraki is a graduate of the Department of Psychology at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She holds a Master's degree in Clinical Psychology from Utrecht University (with a Cognitive-Behavioral orientation). She is a trained Systemic Psychotherapist. In her therapeutic practice, she also incorporates writing and art. She has worked with diverse populations (children, adolescents, adults, groups, refugees, and the community).